

Plant Classification & Reproduction

Across

3. Where pollen is produced.
7. Has xylem and phloem
9. Leaflike structures that protect the flower when it is developing.
10. Does not conduct water as efficiently as vascular plants.
11. The part of the flower that attracts pollinators.

Down

1. Their main function is to transfer or receive chromosomes.
2. The type of reproduction that involves two parents.
4. The female reproductive part of the flower.
5. The type of reproduction that does NOT increase genetic variation.
6. Another name for a fern leaf.
8. The male reproductive part of the flower.