

Plant Defenses

Across

3. Insect that eats tomato plants, used in a study about priming
6. Pine trees defense against the Mountain Pine Beetle
8. Type of defense that attracts the enemy of the animal attacking it
9. Type of defense that is present all over, even in undamaged parts

12. Type of insect that attacks pine trees

13. Type of defense that is always present

15. Type of defense that is only present where the plant gets attacked

16. Type of defense that gets "turned on"

Down

1. Used with induced defenses to lower the costs
2. The word for protecting yourself

4. What it is called when animals eat plants

5. A harmful chemical

7. Type of defense that effects the animal that is harming it

10. A plant defense that is toxic to small animals, but not humans

11. Fill in the blank: _____ allocation principle

14. An example of a constitutive defense on roses