

Name: _____

Date: _____

Plants

Across

4. Water is transported to the leaves where it is combined with _____ to form sugar.
5. The portion of a flowering plant which absorbs water and minerals.
8. The tube like structure that transports water up the stem.
9. Flower produce _____ for reproduction
10. Phloem is used to transport _____ down.

Down

1. Photosynthesis occurs in plants in specialized organelles called
2. Specialised mangrove roots grows upward to collect _____, so they can grow in muddy water.
3. The plant organ where photosynthesis occurs
6. Desert plants often have swollen _____ which takes over the job of making food.
7. Where does the energy come from to make sugar during photosynthesis