

Plate Tectonics Crossword

Across

- 2. _____ is a series of events that causes changes either within Earth or at Earth's surface
- 3. a tectonic boundary where two plates are moving toward each other
- 8. The very center of the Earth is called the _____.
- 10. The movement of the plates over the Earth's surface is termed _____.
- 12. The name of the supercontinent.

13. Paleontologists noticed that these were the same on different continents even though the continents were separated by oceans.

14. Scientist who first proposed the theory that the continents drifted.

Down

- 1. A tectonic boundary where two plates move away from each other.
- 4. The _____ is composed of both the crust and a part of the upper mantle/

5. The outside of the Earth is called the _____.

6. The theory of Continental _____.

7. Alfred Wegener noticed that the coast of South America seemed to fit into the coast of this continent, just like a jigsaw puzzle.

9. The middle of the Earth, that flows and creates convection cells is called the _____.

11. A tectonic boundary where two plates slide against each other in a sideways motion