

Play Hungry: By Pete Rose

Across

- 4. Everytime I step up to the blank, I expect to get a hit.
- 7. Who had the most hits in baseball history.
- 12. Pete Rose played for the hometown Reds and what other team.
- 13. Pete Rose made his major-league debut for the Reds in what year.
- 14. If someone equal in ability as me, I will always be better because I work blank.
- 15. Pete Rose wrote this quote, "He Never Walks When He Can blank".

Down

- 1. Once you except blank, it becomes easier to lose, you will keep losing.
- 2. Pete Rose wrote this quote, "Somebody's gotta win somebody's gotta lose and I believe in letting the other guy's lose." What sport was Pete Rose playing when writing about this quote.
- 3. Pete Rose's number he wore when playing football was.
- 5. Pete Rose only cared about blank when playing baseball.
- 6. During a baseball game you should always blank to your postion. Pete Rose always did this on the field.

- 8. Pete Rose's mother stood out on the front porch of the family house and blanked in the river.
- 9. Pete Rose holds the all-time records for most hits in a career, most singles, most games played, and most at bats, and most blank.
- 10. Pete Rose grew up in blank.
- 11. If you ever blank on the baseball field you might be sat on the bench the next inning. Pete Rose always hated when people would do this.

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-----------------------|------------|------------|-------|
| Baseball | Winning | Pete Rose | 1963 |
| Philadelphia Phillies | Cincinnati | Walked | Plate |
| Defeat | Hustle | fifty-five | Outs |
| Run | Fished | Harder | |