

Poetic Devices in 'War Photographer'

Across

2. the theme of your poetry anthology
4. word class that denotes a group of individuals
6. repetition at the beginning of the line
9. the use of polar opposites
13. a group of words rooted in the same meaning
14. a comparison using 'like' or 'as'
15. language that evokes a strong response in the reader
16. word class that denotes an idea, quality, or state rather than a concrete object

19. when a sentence runs over a line without punctuation
20. a pause mid-line in a poem
21. an incidental remark
22. having multiple meanings
24. the use of 'l'
26. a verb that shows an action
27. a poem in the form of a speech or narrative by an imagined person
28. three dots

Down

1. a verb that expresses necessity or possibility, such as will or would.
3. when two opposing ideas are in close proximity

5. repetition of the 'f', 'th' or 'v' sound
7. When the persona speaks to the reader
8. a word associated with the sound it describes
10. greek term for sympathy
11. 's', 'sh' or 'x' sound
12. a 'p', 't', 'b', 'd', 'g' or 'c/k' sound
17. unrhymed, unstructured poetry
18. words in succession using commas but not 'and'
23. when opposites are used next to each other
25. an underlying and often distinct theme in a piece of writing