

Name: _____

Date: _____

Poetry

Across

- 1. exaggeration for emphasis
- 3. associative or connotative meaning; representational
- 4. the omission of an unstressed vowel or syllable to preserve the meter of a line of poetry
- 11. play on words or a humorous use of a single word or sound with 2 or more implied meanings; quibble
- 12. measured pattern of rhythmic accents in a line of verse
- 14. combination of words that appear to contradict each other

- 15. word or sequence of words representing a sensory experience
- 17. situation or phrase that appear to be contradictory but which contains a truth worth considering
- 18. simplest and most obvious meaning
- 19. a reference to the person, event, or work outside the poem or literary piece
- 20. correspondence of terminal sounds of words or lines of a verse

Down

- 2. comparison using words such as "like or as"

- 5. an object or action that stands for something beyond itself
- 6. the use of words to imitate the sounds they describe
- 7. an attempt to fuse different senses by describing one in terms of another
- 8. a closely related term substituted for an object or idea
- 9. dictionary meaning of a word
- 10. the repetition of consonant sounds, particularly at the beginning of words
- 13. a part substituted for the whole
- 16. the repetition of similar vowel sounds