

Name: _____

Date: _____

Poetry revision

Across

4. When words are used to create vivid mental pictures
 8. Had an affair with Lord Byron
 9. The structure of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's poem
 11. A disease of the blood which causes madness
 12. Comparing two different things/ideas NOT using 'like' or 'as'
 13. A grin of bitterness swept thereby

15. A body of stagnant water
 16. The first name of Mary Shelley's husband
 17. Pouring air and light into an envelope
 19. The type of communication in Letters from Yorkshire
 20. That moment she was mine, mine
Down
 1. Comparing two different things/ideas using 'like' or 'as'
 2. In secret we met

3. The husband of Elizabeth Barrett
 5. And the sunlight clasps the earth
 6. Renew thy presence
 7. Thomas Hardy's attitude to life - very 'glass half empty'
 10. And the waves _____ one another
 14. The repetition of a similar sound/letter at the beginning of successive words
 18. A funeral bell