

Poetry terms

Across

2. giving human characteristics to something that is not human
 4. a pattern of repetition
 7. a temporary state of mind or feeling
 8. verse that does not follow a fixed metrical plan (2 words)
 10. literary work where special attention given to emotions and ideas, distinctive rhythm and style

11. figure of speech that compares two unlike things using like or as
 12. a use of words to create a meaning that is the opposite of the literal meaning
 13. the use of multiple words that start with the same letter

Down

1. language that contains or uses figures of speech (2 words)

3. formation of a word from a sound associated with with what is named
 5. a statement or figure of speech that is not to be taken literally (waiting for eternity)
 6. a figure of speech that compares two things, making one thing like another
 9. identity in sound of some part, usually in lines or verses