

Poetry terms

Across

3. A regular pattern of rhyming words in a poem, indicated by using different letters for each new rhyme
 4. Occurs when words have similar but not identical sound
 7. Words used to imitate sounds ex: beep, thud, sizzle
 9. A pair of rhyming lines, generally expresses a single idea
 10. A fourteen line poem usually written in payments iambic pentameter
 14. Repetition of vowel sounds followed by different consonants ex: "weak and weary"
 16. Technique used by a poet to emphasize the sound relationships among words to create musical and emotional effects to emphasize the poem's meaning
 18. Three line verse form of Japanese poetry, the first and third lines have five syllables, the second line has seven syllables
 19. The set of ideas associated with a word in addition to its explicit meaning
 20. Groups of stressed and in stressed syllables which determine the meter
 21. A repetition of sounds at the end of words
 23. A figure of speech in which like or as is used to make a comparison between two unlike ideas
 26. The repetition of initial constant sounds, gives emphasize to words

27. Highly musical verse that expresses the observation and feelings of a single speaker
 31. A deliberate exaggeration or overstatement
 32. Poetry not written in a regular rhythmical pattern or meter
 33. When rhyming comes at the end of lines
 34. A stanza or poem made up of four lines, usually with a definite rhythm and rhyme scheme
 35. Descriptive language used to create pictures with words, created with details of sight, sound, taste, touch, or smell
 36. An elaborate comparison of unlike subjects
 37. Writing or speech not meant to be interpreted literally, used to create vivid impressions by setting up comparisons between dissimilar things

Down

1. Type of figurative language in which a nonhuman subject is given human characteristics
 2. The arrangement of words and phrases to create well formed sentences on a language
 5. A formal division of lines in a poem, considered as a unit
 6. Occurs when the rhyming words appear in the same line
 8. Poetry written in unrhymed iambic pentameter
 11. Refers to a well known place, person, event, literary work, or work of art. Found everywhere

12. Differs from regular metaphor in that several comparisons are made
 13. Word choice, considering vocabulary, appropriateness
 15. Anything that stands for or represents something else
 17. A figure of speech that implies a comparison between things, saying as if one thing as if it were something else
 22. Rhythmical pattern determined the number of stresses
 24. The feeling created in the reader by a literary work or passage. Often suggested by descriptive details
 25. Long narrative poem, about the deeds of gods and heroes, usually begins by announcing the subject and asking a muse to help
 28. The pattern of beat in a spoken or written language
 29. A word's dictionary meaning, independent of any other associations the word many have
 30. The writer's attitude towards his/her audience and subject