

Name: _____

Date: _____

Poetry vocabulary

Across

2. sally sells seashells by the seashore

6. Words or expressions with a meaning that is different from its literal meaning

9. A word that sounds like the sound. Ex: boom, crash, buzz, and etc.

10. Common phrases that are used to express something different than what they are actually saying

12. When something represents something else in a piece of literature

13. Comparison using like or as

Down

1. The groups of lines in a poem

3. The poet's attitude towards the poems, speaker, reader, and matter as interpreted by the reader.

4. Using figurative language to represent objects, actions, an ideas.

5. Comparing two things not using like or as

7. The feeling you get when you read a poem

8. When something that is not human is given human qualities

11. A great exaggeration