

Political Process

Across

5. All the people in a country or area who are entitled to vote in an election

10. A group or organization using political lobbying to get advantages

11. The principles on which the social laws are based

13. A political organization established to support candidates by contributing money

14. Holding to traditional attitudes and values and cautious about change or innovation

Down

1. A list of issues that the party's candidate is running for

2. Open to new behavior or opinions and willing to discard traditional values

3. Groups of people with similar political goals and opinions

4. Information used to promote or publicize a particular political cause or point of view

6. Members of the Electoral College who officially elect the President and Vice President after the general population has voted

7. The process used to select the President and Vice President of the US

8. Work in a organized and active way toward a particular goal

9. A way to organize different political beliefs

12. Prejudice in favor or against something compared with another, usually unfair