

Political Processes

Across

- 5. Strong inclination of opinion or prejudice.
- 7. Open to new opinions and willing to discard traditional values.
- 8. Information that is designed to shape public opinion.
- 9. People entitled to vote.
- 10. A list of issues that the party's candidate advocates for.

- 11. Organization groups that seek to win elections.
- 12. Holding to traditional values and cautious about change.
- 13. Members of the Electoral College.
- 14. A way to organize different political beliefs.

Down

- 1. Groups that raise money for a campaign or candidate.

- 2. The process used to elect President and Vice President.
- 3. A series of coordinated activities to achieve a goal.
- 4. Citizens that organize in a group because of shared points of views on public policies.
- 6. A set of laws that address matters of concern to society.