

Political Unit Review

Across

- 1. _____ allows for the prevention of fraud
- 8. One thing that you need to vote
- 16. Amount of money an individual can give their own campaign
- 17. Label for the far left of the political spectrum
- 18. Interest groups that can spend unlimited amounts of money to promote or oppose a candidate as long as they don't coordinate with any candidate
- 19. Congress eliminated literacy as a suffrage qualification in the _____ of 1970
- 20. What it is called to be in the middle of the political spectrum
- 21. A group of like-minded persons who meet to select the candidates they will support in an upcoming election

- 22. An independent agency in the executive branch whose job is to deal with all federal laws with campaign finance
- 24. Outlawed the poll tax, or any other tax as a requirement for voting
- 25. Those who have split away from one of the major parties

Down

- 2. Republican animal symbol
- 3. _____ are willing to take a stronger/clear stand on the controversial issues of their day
- 4. A party nominating election in which any party membership is established by registration
- 5. This campaign can be funded by public money
- 6. A group of people who can't vote includes: _____, convicts, discharged from armed forces, nonresident's, etc.
- 7. Attempting to influence the public-policy-making

- 9. Party nominating election in which only declared party members can vote
- 10. Third parties are hurt by peoples assumption that a vote for a minor party is a _____
- 11. For the minor parties the "spoiler" role can be when a strong third-party candidacy can play a _____ in an election
- 12. People who live in urban areas would most likely vote
- 13. A very conservative fraction of GOP that wants a much smaller national government with less taxes and less spending
- 14. A _____ are those who are based on a particular set of beliefs, a comprehensive view of social economic, and political matters
- 15. Label for the far right of the political spectrum
- 23. Democratic animal symbol