

Political Violence, Chapter 5, Comparative project

Across

- 1. A forcible overthrow of a government
- 7. Complete trust in someone or something
- 8. a person who is not a member of a particular profession or group
- 10. regime type with a moderate risk of terrorism
- 11. Regime type that has a higher risk of terrorism

13. war, often confused with terrorism

15. the unlawful use of violence and intimidation, especially against civilians, in the pursuit of political aims.

Down

- 2. The rejection of all religious and moral principles.
- 3. An institution in which encourages violence

4. a regime type that has a lower risk of terrorism

5. one of the three factors that may lead people to carry out violence

6. ideas that justify or promote violence

9. A territory considered as an organized political community under one government.

12. the state of being physically unrestricted

14. A government, system, or planned way of doing things

Word Bank

- |               |               |           |         |            |
|---------------|---------------|-----------|---------|------------|
| Institutional | authoritarian | Guerrilla | freedom | terrorism  |
| Revolution    | Faith         | nihilism  | regime  | Democratic |
| Ideational    | Individual    | Civilian  | state   | Illiberal  |