

Political terms

Across

3. government by a dictator
6. a system in which society, usually in the form of the government, owns and controls the means of production
7. is a type of democracy founded on the principle of elected officials representing a group of people, as opposed to direct democracy.
8. a form of government in which power is vested in hereditary kings and queens who govern in the interest of all
10. an economic theory of social organization based on the holding of all property in common. Actual ownership being ascribed to the community as a whole.

11. a political system in which the government has total control over the lives of individual citizens

Down

1. an economic and political system in which a countrys trade and industry are controlled by a private for profit, rather than by the state.
2. - refers to the idea of humankind united under one common political authority
4. a governments absolute power or authority
5. a form of government ruled by a religious elite
9. an independent country or community, especially a democratic republic