

Population Unit

Across

2. The average period that a person may expect to live.
 3. The ratio of deaths to the population of a particular area during a particular period of time.
 4. The deliberate killing of a large group of people, especially those of a particular ethnic group or nation.
 7. The period of time required for a quantity to double in size or value.
 9. The process of making something free from bacteria or other living microorganisms.
 10. In, relating to, or characteristic of the countryside rather than the town.
 15. The maintenance of a population at a constant level by limiting the number of live births

16. The crime of killing a child within a year of birth. The practice in some societies of killing unwanted children soon after birth.

17. An outlying district of a city, especially a residential one.

19. The rate at which natural resources are created.

20. The degree of wealth and material comfort available to a person or community.

Down

1. A very large, heavily populated city or urban complex.

5. A worker who moves from place to place to do seasonal work.

6. The production of offspring by a sexual or asexual process.

8. A poor agricultural country that is seeking to become more advanced economically and socially.

11. The passing on of physical or mental characteristics genetically from one generation to another.

12. The period during pregnancy and shortly after childbirth.

13. The deliberate termination of a human pregnancy, most often performed during the first 28 weeks of pregnancy.

14. The science of improving a human population by controlled breeding to increase the occurrence of desirable heritable characteristics.

18. The number of live births per thousand of population per year.