

Name: _____

Date: _____

Populations Crossword

Across

3. When an entire species dies off.
4. the arrangement or spread of individuals living in a given area; how the population of an area is arranged according to variables, such as age, race, or gender
6. An organism that has fewer offspring that tend to mature slower like humans or elephants.
7. An organism that has a large number of offspring that tend to develop faster.
8. The number of a species born in an area per year.

Word Bank

Density dependent
Birth rate
Death rate
K selected species

Limiting factor
r selected species
Extinction

Density Independent
population density
population distribution

9. Factors that affect a population more when there are more individuals in an area. Ex. disease
10. a measurement of individuals of a population per unit area or unit volume; frequently applied to living organisms, including humans

Down

1. An environmental factor that tends to limit population size. Ex. food, water, space.
2. Factors that affect a population regardless of the size of the population. Ex weather
5. The number of individuals that die per year.