

PowerPoint Word Find

Across

2. Predrawn artwork, photos, animations, and sound clips that you can insert into your files.
4. Remove a portion of a picture that you don't want
8. Prearranged sets of placeholders for various types of slide content.
9. Professionally designed graphics that organize and display information in various graphic types such as lists, processes, or hierarchical displays.

11. The movement to text or an object to control its display during the presentation.

12. A reason to give a presentation

13. The background colors and graphics of a slide and also fonts and color schemes.

Down

1. An example of a _____ is a picture or a graph.

3. The visual effects used when one slide moves off of the screen and another moves onto the screen.

5. Designated areas in PowerPoint layouts that can be used to easily insert text, graphics, or multimedia objects

6. A presentation that is already formatted with a slide design and may also include sample text to guide you in completing the presentation.

7. Printed copies of the presentation for the audience to refer to during and after the slide show.

10. Consider the _____ before creating your presentation.