

Prefixes

Across

1. contained as part of a whole being considered.
 3. not showing a proper sense of responsibility.
 11. officially agreed or accepted as satisfactory.
 12. seize (someone) by legal authority and take into custody.
 13. guidance or recommendations offered with regard to prudent future action.
 14. having become or been made better.

15. highly trained or skilled.

16. enjoyable and pleasurable; pleasant.

Down

2. readily feeling or showing fondness or tenderness.
 4. a public and typically formal statement about a fact, occurrence, or intention.
 5. demand something forcefully, not accepting refusal.
 6. careful examination or scrutiny.

7. carry out a systematic or formal inquiry to discover and examine the facts of (an incident, allegation, etc.) so as to establish the truth.
 8. containing pictures or other graphical material.
 9. supply water to (land or crops) to help growth, typically by means of channels.
 10. feeling or showing admiration or respect for someone or something.