

Presidential crossword

Across

- 3. The _____ is the head of the government.
- 6. ~DEMOCRACY~ All citizens have the right to be a _____.
- 7. Countries can choose to structure their governments in man different ways; however, all of the governments in the world can be classified as being either an _____.
- 8. In which democracy do the citizens elect the legislature and executive?
- 9. In which democracy do citizens elect the legislature and select the executive?

- 10. The power of the government rests with a _____ who holds all of the political power.

Down

- 1. The way in which _____ in the government determine if the government is Autocratic or Democratic.
- 2. ~DEMOCRACY~ The main difference between the two is the relationship between the _____ branches
- 4. ~AUTOCRACY~ Citizens _____ their leader and their professional freedoms are very limited.
- 5. The two most predominate types of _____ are parliamentary and presidential _____.

Word Bank

- | | | |
|--------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------|
| do not select | leader | Chief Executive |
| Autocracy or Democracy | legislative and executive | parliamentary |
| Presidential democracies | citizens participate | single ruler |