

Name: _____ Date: _____

Pressure Injury Prevention!

Across

3. An element of the pressure injury bundle that gives guidance on what to avoid placing under the patient

5. The Pressure injury bundle element that instructs you to consult the dietician

8. A product that can be placed between skin folds to provide antimicrobial action for up to five days

9. Heel _____ can be used to prevent pressure injury to heels

14. Skin care product that can be applied to non intact, irritated skin.

16. How often should the patient be repositioned in bed to prevent pressure injury

17. occurs after 2-4 hours of compression on a pressure point

18. How often should the patient's weight be shifted when in a chair

19. Degrees the body needs to be turned to most benefit offloading pressure

20. Skin care product that soften and exfoliates calloused, very dry intact skin

Down

1. An element of the pressure injury bundle that gives guidance on care for contaminated skin

2. This should be avoided underneath patients to prevent pressure injury.

4. Elements of the Ascension Pressure Injury Bundle

6. Skin care product for every day, routine moisturization

7. This item can keep the patient's body turned at a 30 degree angle

10. Where can you find most of the skin care products and assistive products that help prevent pressure injuries

11. Care should be taken to avoid these objects to prevent pressure injuries from forming

12. An element of the pressure injury bundle that gives guidance on reposition

13. The area should you leave free of any pressure when positioning a patient to avoid pressure

15. A recommended element that needs to be a progressive program to prevent pressure injury