

Preventive Concepts 1 Crossword

Across

6. The recurrent latent virus eruption of Herpes Simplex Virus in adults.

7. This form of Hepatitis is usually a co-infection with Hepatitis B. It has the same vaccine as Hepatitis B.

8. This form of Hepatitis is transmitted like Hepatitis A and can be found where sewage disposal is inadequate. There is no vaccine.

10. A disease caused by the bacteria Mycobacterium tuberculosis

Down

1. The most common form of Hepatitis virus. There is a vaccine.

2. This disease causes a rash that becomes vesicular within days and then scabs form. It is most often found in children.

3. This form of Hepatitis can cause life long infection, cirrhosis of the liver, liver failure, and death. There is a vaccine.

4. This is the form of Herpes Simplex Virus that causes cold sores.

5. This form of Hepatitis is spread by contact with the blood of an infected person. There is no vaccine.

9. This is the sexually transmitted disease form of the Herpes Simplex Virus.