

Pride and Prejudice

Across

- 1. Military uniform.
- 4. A sudden and unaccountable change in mood or behavior.
- 5. Pretentious and vulgar display, especially with wealth and luxury.
- 11. Express severe disapproval of some one or something.
- 12. Make someone feel annoyed frustrated, or worried especially with trivia matter.
- 16. Favored by or involving good luck or fortune.
- 18. A persons face or facial expression.

- 19. Form of opinion or supposition about something based on the basis of incomplete information.

- 20. Excessively proud of oneself.

Down

- 2. To produce.
- 3. The quality of being wary and unwilling to take risks.
- 6. As a result.
- 7. Warm and friendly.
- 8. Disturb the composure of: unsettle.
- 9. Diligent, thorough, and extremely attentive to details.

- 10. The quality of behaving or speaking in such a way as to avoid causing offense or reviling private information.

- 13. Evade or escape from (a danger, enemy or pursuer) typically in skillful or cunning way.

- 14. Very attentive to and concerned about accuracy and detail.

- 15. Appropriate of suitable in the circumstances.

- 17. Feeling or expressing distress or irritation.