

Name: _____

Date: _____

Probability

Across

3. Two or more events that CAN occur simultaneously.
5. A set of outcomes of an experiment.
7. A possible result of an experiment.
8. Type of probability that is based on a theory
9. An event in which there are more than one possible outcome
10. The outcome of the first event affects the outcome of the next event.

Down

1. The ratio of the number of times an outcome occurs to the total number of times the activity is performed.
2. Two or more events that can NOT occur simultaneously.
4. The likely hood of something occurring.
6. The probability of an even in no way affects the probability or outcome of another.