

Procedures II week II

Across

3. what cement reduces sensitivity and can be used as a liner under composite and amalgam restorations?

5. If the decay is extending close or into the pulp, what may need to be used?

7. what is an example of enamel bonding?

10. what cement with-stands mastication, easy to remove and is mixed on the pad?

11. what is a very thin layer of debris on newly prepared dentin?

15. what cement has anesthetic and antibacterial agents in it?

16. what pulpal response is changed due to hot and cold?

Down

1. what other indirect restorations are there; Inlays, onlays, Crowns, Bridges, and?

2. Do you ALWAYS dispense the powder or liquid first when mixing cements?

4. Another term for dental bonding is?

6. what should varnish not be used with, resin and...

8. when mixing cements, there is ALWAYS a base and...

9. How many pulpal stimulus are there?

12. what is used to remove the smear layer in preparation for adhesion of resins?

13. If the patient has a deep filling and desensitizer is used, how long after will the patient experience the sensitivity again?

14. what is a direct restoration?