

Procurement and Supply Chain Defined

Across

1. an agreement between two or more companies to perform a specific act or services or to deliver merchandise
 7. mutual discussion and arrangement of the terms of a transaction or agreement
 10. an agreement in which one company contracts-out a part of their existing internal activity to another company
 12. Materials, personnel or services needed for a specific period of time.
 13. Amount or number

14. a business enterprise in which two or more companies enter a temporary partnership
 15. is anything that can be offered to a market that might satisfy a want or need
Down
 2. a complete listing of merchandise, raw materials or finished goods on hand
 3. A written modification to a contract or purchase order or other agreements.

4. is the process of finding, agreeing terms and acquiring goods or services from an external source
 5. A duly executed and legally binding contract
 6. is the recipient of a good or service
 8. to provide a person or establishment with what is lacking or requisite
 9. To offer a price whether for payment or acceptance
 11. is an enterprise that contributes goods or services