

Project management

Across

3. You should compare ... results with planned results.
5. How many criteria's are there for a project to be successful?
6. What control is appropriate for high-risk projects?
9. How many steps are there in the project management for beginners?
10. According to R. Rosenhead you have to be ... instead of optimistic about what can be achieved.

13. What chart is used to identify all the activities that need to be carried out?

14. How do we call feedback that is given to the senior project manager?

15. What does R. Rosenhead call a starting point for projects?

Down

1. How are the people that have an interest in the project or can be affected by it called?

2. What thing apart from controlling has to be done for a project to not go wrong?

4. An assembly or conference of people in charge of the project?

7. Something that can derail or negatively affect the project.

8. Who is the author of this article?

11. How many key factors are there to keeping active projects on track?

12. What is the other name for senior manager?