

Properties of Ceramics

Across

1. They are difficult to bend

5. They break easily

6. They do not conduct electricity

7. This is their state at room temperature

9. This is their melting point

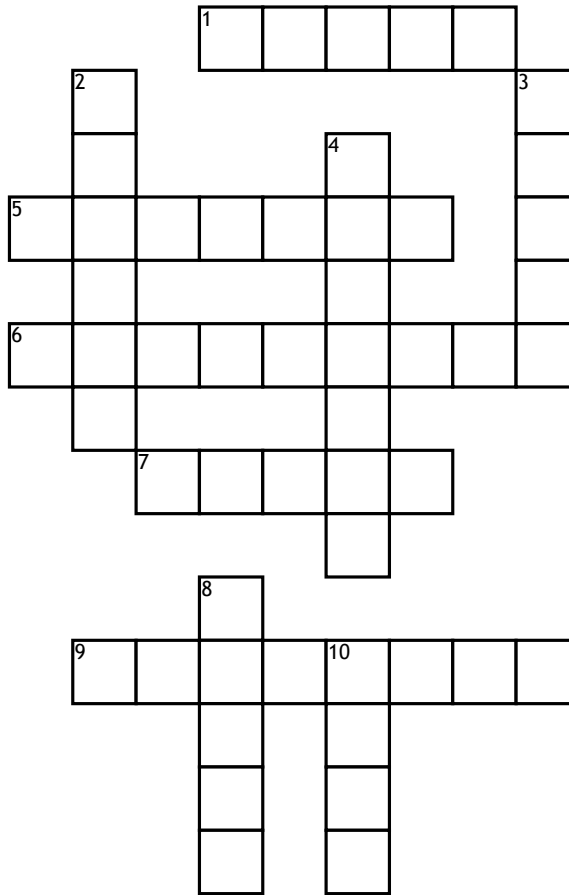

Down

2. When forces press on them, they are this

3. They do not react with this

4. They will not react with acids or this

8. When stretched, they do this

10. You can only scratch them with harder materials

