

Name: _____

Property Law Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. The dominant owner states that the easement will no longer be used, and the servient owner substantially changes his position in reasonable reliance on that statement.

7. Extinguishes borrower's title to property.

9. A nonpossessory interest that permit one to enter another's land, and is a revocable privilege to enter land temporarily for a specific purpose.

10. Action in which one cotenant seeks reimbursement for payment of expenses related to the operation or maintenance of the property.

Down

1. A written agreement between the servient owner and the dominant owner (No spaces).

2. Owner unintentionally and involuntarily parts with it through neglect or inadvertence and does not know where it is (No Spaces).

4. a non-possessory right or interest in the property held by a third party that reduces the property's market value, restricts its use, or imposes an obligation on the property owner.

5. Affirmative act resulting in a substantial change that increases the property value. What type of waste?

6. The person making the gift.

8. A legal interest that entitles the tenant to immediate possession of designated land for some quantum of time.