

Name: _____

Date: _____

Psych

Across

- 2. the tendency to favor one's group
- 3. an unjustifiable attitude toward a group and its members
- 5. "us"- people with whom one shares a common identity
- 13. any physical or verbal behavior intended to hurt or destroy
- 14. an aroused state of intense positive absorption in another, usually present at the beginning of a love relationship
- 16. revealing intimate aspects of oneself to others
- 17. a generalized belief of a group of people

18. the tendency to believe people get what they deserve and deserve what they get

Down

- 1. shared goals that override differences among people and require their cooperation
- 4. the phenomenon that repeated exposure to novel stimuli increasing liking of them
- 6. in social relations, taking action against a group of people because of stereotyped beliefs and feelings of prejudice
- 7. the deep affectionate passion we feel with those for whom our lives are intertwined

8. the tendency for any given bystander to be less likely to give aid if other bystanders are present.

- 9. those perceived as different or apart from "us"
- 10. psychologist who studied the impact of shared goals on cooperation
- 11. psychologists who researched the circumstances that determine when a bystander will intervene on behalf of another person
- 12. unselfish regard for the welfare of others
- 15. the theory that prejudice provides an outlet for anger by providing someone to blame