

Name: _____ Date: _____

Psychology 201 Final Exam Matching

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------|
| 1. Melissa is so elated after running a marathon that she feels little fatigue or discomfort. Her lack of pain is probably the result of the release of | A. endorphins |
| 2. The junction at which neural impulses communicate is called a(n) | B. money |
| 3. The visual cortex is located in the | C. retrograde amnesia |
| 4. Hypothesis are best described as | D. random assignment |
| 5. A researcher would be most likely to discover a negative correlation between: | E. predictions |
| 6. Researchers control factors that might influence a dependent variable by means of: | F. synapse |
| 7. Thorndike's Law of Effect said that animals will learn responses that are | G. rewarded |
| 8. Which one of the following is a conditioned reinforcer for most people? | H. self-esteem and depression |
| 9. Cognitive structures representing individual's knowledge and assumptions about the world are called | I. schemas |
| 10. Impairment of memory for events that occur prior to severe head injury is called | J. occipital lobe |