

Name: _____

Date: _____

Psychology Crossword

Across

- 6. the entire group of people about which you would like to know something
- 9. tendency to search for information that agrees with a preconception
- 10. only method that allows us to draw conclusions about cause-and-effect relationships
- 11. research technique that questions people to collect information about attitudes or behaviors

12. thinking that does not blindly accept arguments and conclusions

Down

- 1. the variable that should show the effect of changing the independent variable
- 2. the variable that would cause something to happen
- 3. a testable prediction about the outcome of research

4. method of learning about the world through observation, experimentation, and statistical analysis

- 5. a sample that fairly represents the population
- 7. inactive pill that has no known effect
- 8. study of individuals in depth in hope of revealing universal principles