

Psychology Keywords

Across

- 3. Information that's familiar to you.
- 5. Remembering words through it's meaning.
- 7. Recalling information from storage when it's needed.
- 8. Memory for smells.
- 9. Remembering information without a clue.
- 10. Memories stored on the basis of sound.

Down

- 1. the process of taking information and changing it so it can be stored in memory.
- 2. The term for thought processes.
- 4. When you can't remember something, someone gives you a clue, and it comes back to you.
- 6. A thinking process where past experiences are recalled.