

Psychology Memory

Across

3. brain region that is involved in the storage of short term memories

4. memories about personally experienced events

9. more or less permanent memory

13. phenomenon to filter out other conversations around you to focus attention

14. briefly stores and processes information

15. a set of beliefs from past experience

17. memories about motor perceptual tasks

19. the linking of new information in STM to familiar information in LTM

20. memory that we can readily express in words

21. cannot remember the first two years of life

22. recalling the last items of a list better

23. failure to attend to something we are looking at

24. vivid memory of a certain event after a long time has passed

Down

1. selecting some information for further processing

2. entry points for raw information

5. memory that we cannot readily express in words

6. recalling the first items of a list better

7. grouping of info into small units for easier handling in the STM

8. repeating information to make it stick in your STM

10. memories about general facts and info

11. brain region involved with storing procedural memories

12. a long lasting change in synapse structure, increasing efficiency for neurons

16. theory that argues that the passage of time causes forgetting

18. the ability to remember the things we have experienced