

Name: _____

Date: _____

Psychology key terms and words

Across

- 3. The factors that somebody in an agentic state would tell themselves to relieve stress
- 8. when after the experiment is complete, you make sure the participants know the true aim
- 9. when an experiment gets criticism for not being what?
- 10. What somebody may look for to see if they are an authority figure or not

Down

- 1. The strongest form of conformity seen as 'true conformity'

2. The type of social influence where you desire to be right

4. The name of the psychologist who did the Stanford prison experiment

5. When someone moves from the autonomous state to the agentic state

6. When the participant is deliberately misled on the aim

7. when the results you have gotten from an experiment can be widely applied to every person