

Public Speaking

Across

1. The group of people that hear the speech
4. The emotional appeal within a speech
6. Repetitive sounds and words such as "um," "yeah," and "like".
8. Used at the beginning of a presentation to capture the audience's focus

10. A type of speech that attempts to change a person's mind or actions
11. The end of a presentation
12. The part of your speech that presents the main points
13. The audience's reaction to a speech

15. The speaker's credibility
- ## Down
2. Person who is giving the presentation

3. Resources used during a presentation to help the speaker remember their presentation
5. Phrases such as "First," "Next," or "In Conclusion"
7. The first part of your presentation
9. The "big idea" statement of a speech
14. The facts and evidence in a speech

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|----------------|------------------|-------------|------------------|
| Logos | Persuasion | Speaker | Active Listening |
| Verbal Fillers | Ethos | Transitions | Audience |
| Introduction | Thesis | Pathos | Body |
| Conclusion | Attention Getter | Notecards | |