

Public Speaking Vocabulary

Across

5. a statement that gives credit to the source of quoted or paraphrased material

6. saying a word correctly

7. verbal and nonverbal reactions that indicate to the speaker how the audience has received the message

8. clearly speaking each word parts so that all words are understandable

12. the overall plan for movement the speaker makes

14. the space you will be delivering a speech in

18. one of the three main purposes of speaking; to convince an audience to believe or do something

21. the middle portion of the speech that contains the main points

22. the process of making your speech audible to everyone in the audience

23. pieces of information that back up the topic sentences of each body paragraph, and overall the thesis statement

24. when the speaker uses only one tone in a speech, thus creating boredom

28. the first sentence of every body paragraph that states the topic of that paragraph

30. a brief, often amusing or shocking, story normally told in the attention getter

31. a statement that expresses the overall topic of a speech and how the speaker's tone toward that topic

32. the first part of the introduction used to hook the audience's attention

Down

1. an analysis and evaluation of something

2. the feelings and ideas associated with certain words

3. the group of people you are going to be giving a speech to

4. changes in pitch, tone, and volume while delivering a speech

9. the use of appropriate facial expressions, eye contact, gestures, postures, and movement during the performance of the speech

10. one of the three main purposes of speaking; to inform the audience of something or how to do something

11. a chart, electronic resource, picture, etc. that speaker uses to illustrate a part of their speech

13. anything that interferences with the overall effectiveness of a speech

15. one of the three main purposes of speaking; to amuse an audience

16. how loud or soft a speaker's voice is

17. the speed at which a person speaks

19. the highness or lowness of sound

20. words or phrases that help connect one part of the speech to another and help the speech parts flow together as cohesive unit

25. a statement in the exact words of another person

26. a person's composure, preparedness, and confidence

27. index cards with notes on them to help the speaker remember his or her speech while delivering it

29. how a writer or speaker feels toward a topic; the way the speaker's voice sounds when speaking