

Putting the Pieces of Mental Health Together

Across

- 2. _____ Restraint: a drug(s) or medications(s) used as a restriction to manage a patient's behavior or restrict freedom of movement and when its use is not a standard treatment or dosage for the patient's condition.
- 7. An IV arm board is not considered a _____ when used to stabilize an IV.
- 8. Behavioral restraints require _____ every 15 minutes.
- 10. Non-behavioral restraints require documentation every _____ hours.
- 11. _____ That are not tied down and where the patient can flex fingers and have access to his/her body is NOT considered a restraint.

- 12. When using non behavioral restraints for the adult, the order must be renewed at least _____ 24 hours.
- 14. If a patient is out of control a Code _____ is called.
- 15. _____ side rail raised on a bed is considered a restraint?
- 17. Behavioral restraints requires _____ face to face assessment within 1 hour.

Down

- 1. _____ restraint is defined as a manual, physical, mechanical, material or chemical device used to involuntarily limit freedom of movement of a patient who exhibits intractable behavior that is severely self- injurious or injurious to others.
- 3. _____ orders must be entered by the physician.

- 4. Prior to initiating restraints, less _____ intervention MUST be considered unless an emergency condition exists.
- 5. _____ holds: the practice of placing the patient on a hold, short-term and/or long-term certification against his or her will, in compliance with Colorado statute.
- 6. After the initiation of restraints for non behavioral reason, the treating physician must be notified within 4 _____.
- 9. Behavioral restraint orders must be renewed every _____ hours for patients over the age of 18.
- 13. The physician will be notified within _____ hour of the initiation of suicide/behavioral observation precautions.
- 16. _____ is a ten item scale used in the assessment and management of alcohol withdrawal.