

Quartet 4 EQT Vocab Sheet 3

Across

2. set of instructions to complete a task
 4. the ease of use of an app or program
 6. a thread that conducts electricity. It might be coated with an electrically conductive element
 9. repeating a process to yield results successively closer to the goal
 11. flaw in a computer program
 12. an output device that produces sound
 16. rotates only 180 degrees, 0 and 180 are the endpoints with 90 degrees being the middle
 20. the parts of an app or program that the user interacts with to input or search for information

21. action of doing something over and over
 22. information about someone on the internet
 24. the person for which the app or program is designed to be used
 25. continuing an action despite difficulty

Down

1. a first or preliminary model of something
 3. wires that have connector pins at each end
 5. rotates full circle, in any direction, at various speeds
 7. two people working together to create a computer program
 8. four binary digits
 10. a single binary value

13. a type of motor or servo that is responsible for moving components
 14. coding activity completed without a computer
 15. an algorithm that can be coded into something that can be run by a machine
 17. data that ranges on a continuous scale
 18. identify bugs or errors in computer hardware or software
 19. eight binary digits
 23. Lights up individually or in a series; detachable into a single LED