

READING STRATEGIES

Across

- 3. The boy was sad throughout the story. The author set his _____.
- 4. Guessing what might happen before you read the passage, is to make a _____.
- 8. The teacher gave us a _____ for, or told us why we were to read the passage.
- 9. "I fell off my bike just like the character in my story! I know how she feels." This is an example of TEXT to _____ connection.
- 10. I _____ what's happening while I read; it helps me understand and remember what I'm reading.

Down

- 1. The story was about starvation and poverty. It reminded me of all the children in the world that are going through these problems. This is a TEXT to WORLD _____.
- 2. _____ is when you look at titles, sub - headings and pictures before you read to give you an idea of what you are about to read.
- 5. The teacher had me _____ what I had read, so I briefly told her what it was about in my own words.
- 6. Make sure you understand something you are reading by _____ it or asking what it means.
- 7. If you don't understand, its a good idea to _____ what you just read.

Word Bank

- prediction clarifying previewing reread connection
 Visualize mood summarize purpose self