

Radiation Therapy

Across

2. Tissue equivalent material.
 4. External beam therapy in which the source of radiation is moving around the patient during treatment.
 7. The development of secondary malignant growth, in a different area than the primary site of cancer.
 10. Two therapies given at the same time.

12. The commission that conducts periodic on-site surveys to verify that set standards for healthcare organizations and issued accredited entities are met.
 13. A tumor that is not cancerous.
 14. A tool used to measure separation.
 15. The type of particle therapy that uses a beam of protons to irradiate diseased tissue, most often in the treatment of cancer.

Down

1. The point in a patient where the radiation fields intersect.

3. The treatment of cancer by the insertion of radioactive implants directly into the tissue.
 5. The way in which the total dose is spread over time.
 6. Used to assist in the positioning of patients.
 8. Treatment intent that is designed to relieve symptoms and improve your quality of life, but not cure disease.
 9. Someone that stay in the hospital
 11. Device most commonly used for external beam radiation treatments. (Acronym)