

Ramona and Her Father

Across

- 1. Right or appropriate for a particular person, purpose, or situation
- 4. A loud resonant repeating noise.
- 6. Having or showing a habitually forgetful or inattentive disposition (of a person or a person's behavior or manner).
- 10. A branch of mathematics that consists of the study of numbers, especially the properties of the traditional operations on them -addition, subtraction, multiplication and division.

Down

- 2. Shake or tremble in speaking, typically through nervousness or emotion (of a person's voice).
- 3. Doing or saying something in a bitter, angry way, especially when you feel you've been treated unfairly
- 5. Tell someone about a secret or private matter while trusting them not to repeat it to others.
- 7. Effectively conveying thought or feeling.
- 8. To hold the attention of someone.
- 9. With a feeling of vague or regretful longing.