

Raptor Vocabulary

Across

2. outer flight feathers
 5. an angled, darker line running from the corner of the mouth outward
 11. a specialized trap used for road trapping hawks
 12. mouth; action of opening the mouth to aid in cooling the body
 13. soft part of the beak; the colored portion at the base of the bill from where it grows
 14. a weighed, leather tool to which meat can be attached used in training raptors

16. active primarily at dusk and dawn

17. of or relating to wetlands, rivers or streams

18. a perch used for falcons that provides a flat surface for their feet

19. bony ridge above the eyes; aids in shading the eyes for better vision

Down

1. a glove used in falconry
 3. falconry term used for the housing structures for raptors

4. the notch in the upper mandible of a falcon's beak

6. false eye spots

7. the projection inside the nostril of a falcon which aids in air circulation at top speeds

8. birds feathers

9. active during daylight hours

10. the feathers on the back of the head or neck; often erect in times of stress

15. the decaying flesh of dead animals