

Reading 5: The Challenge of Diversity

Across

3. (n) a statement, made without giving proof, that someone has done something wrong.
 5. (v) state the opposite of what someone has said.
 7. prep phr in support of.
 9. (n) quality of begin good; deserving praise.
 13. (adj) having qualities that are the same.
 15. (n) an unfair personal opinion that influences your judgement.
 16. (adj) to be opposed or reluctant to do something.
 17. (v) to forbid or legally stop something or someone from doing something.

18. (n) the process of mixing two or more things.

20. (adj) harmful.
 21. (adj) not having any connection with religion.

23. (v) to establish; to start.

24. (adj) approaching.

25. (n) interruption.

Down

1. (v) to make something worse by adding to it.

2. (n) a fixed idea, that is usually wrong, about a group of people often based on gender, age, race, or economic background.

4. (n) an arrangement of something in a series of layers.

6. (adj) extremely limiting or difficult.

8. (adj) not based on reason or clear thinking.

10. (n) people being in close agreement and working closely together.

11. (n) an official action taken by a government to force another government to behave in a particular way.

12. (n) killing of a large number of people who are often defenseless.

14. (n) the forcible removal of a person from their home.

19. (v) slow something down.

22. (v) to find a solution to a problem or difficulty.