

Name: _____

Reading Foundations

Across

4. This stresses that the meaning one gains from text is the result of a transaction between the reader and the text and that the readers will have a range of responses to literary works
5. The ability to express oneself easily and accurately
6. Guiding students to literary success
8. The result of learning, repetition, and practice
9. Able to read and write

10. Identifying syllables, blending sounds, and assisting children in becoming independent readers, or the relationship between letters and sounds

Down

1. Shows the students how to do something before having them do it themselves
2. Awareness and understanding your own thought process
3. To grasp mentally, or understand
7. Large organized "packets" of knowledge