

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reading Glossary Crossward Puzzle

Across

- 3. work designed to cover all topics of knowledge
- 8. A word that means the same thing as another word
- 11. A book full of organized words that are synonyms
- 13. Following an order which it occurs
- 17. Repetition of the same letter or sound at beginning of a group of word
- 19. Direct comparison of 2 things without using like or as

- 20. Give human like qualities of characteristics to animals or objects

Down

- 1. A listing of topics along with page numbers
- 2. usually in the back of a book so you can look up technical terms quickly
- 4. A group of lines in a poem
- 5. A word that sounds the same but is spelled different
- 6. An extreme exaggeration
- 7. A base for the prefix and suffix

- 9. Add something at the beginning of a word as an introduction
- 10. The story that is told in a novel, movie or play
- 12. Something added at the end of a word
- 14. Word that imitate the natural sound of a thing
- 15. A word that means the exact opposite of another word
- 16. Compare 2 things using like or as
- 18. Common saying that means something different from what the words actually say