

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reading Vocabulary 1

Across

1. decaying organic material used as plant fertilizer

8. the piece of tree that was left behind after being cut down

9. an object made by humans typically an item of historical interest

12. a movable joint w linked which connects linked objects so that they can open and close

13. a mark or smear of a different substance or color

14. To breakdown in the human body or absorb mentally over a period of time

Down

2. a person who studies human history through analysis of artifacts, or excavation sites.

3. acceptable in quality or quantity, reasonable, satisfactory

4. small green plant without roots which grows in damp places

5. an obstacle that prevents movement or access

6. backbone

7. to position something or someone more or less upright by leaning it against something else

10. monitor or control according to a particular set of standards

11. silly, foolish, or amusing behavior