

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reading Vocabulary - Expository Elements/Organizational Patterns

Across

2. a graphic showing events in chronological order

4. words that are darker to show they are important

9. the way a text is arranged (ex. sequence, description, problem & solution etc.)

10. organizational pattern where the author gives a problem and explains one or more solutions

12. a pictorial representation of parts of the Earth and their political or geographical features

13. pattern of text where author provides several details of something

14. graphs giving information through text and shapes, helps organize information

15. a drawing or photograph relating to the text

Down

1. organizational pattern where author describes events and what happens because of these events

3. organizational pattern where author list similarities and differences between people, things, or concepts

5. an illustration with labels that describe somethings or shows how it works

6. words that slant to show they are important

7. a chart with an arrangement of information in columns or rows

8. a diagram that shows relationships between sets of data

11. organization pattern where the author provides readers with events in time order