

Religion Studies

Across

- 2. A particular event that marks moving from one stage of life to another
- 3. Includes religious practices and beliefs but it also includes other systems that are important to people
- 9. People who believe that all religions are equally true.
- 10. Conflict between members of the same religious group

11. Someone who combines ideas, beliefs and practices from different religions to form a new religion

12. The acceptance of the other person's beliefs and practices

13. Conflict between members of different religious groups

Down

1. People who believe that their religion is the only true religion. They also believe that their religious texts are infallible.

4. Questions requiring a yes or no answer

5. People belonging to these religions are found on all continents

6. People who try to spread their religions

7. Appreciation of another person's beliefs and practices.

8. A system of belief and worship